DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-5, 7-13, ~~15~~18, and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Chuah et al hereinafter ("Chuah")(US 6665718B1).
3. As per Claims 1, 9, and 17, Chuah discloses "Mobility Management System" invention, which includes a wireless network (Col 1 line 12), comprising a plurality of base stations (Col 5 lines 49-56), each of said base stations communicate with a plurality of mobile stations, a security device (Registration agent, Col 7 lines 17, Col 8 lines 27-41, and Col 8 lines 44-59) capable of preventing an unauthorized workstation from accessing an Internet protocol (IP) Data network through a network, said security device comprising: a first controller (Access Hub , Col 6 line 66 to Col 7 line 11, and Col 6 lines 15-16) capable of receiving from said un-provisioned mobile station an IP data packet payload (Col

7 lines 12-25) and encrypting at least a portion of said IP packet payload (Col 7 lines 31-41, and Col 8 lines 8-12).

4. As per Claims 2 and 11, Chuah discloses the security device set forth in claims 1 and 9 where said first controller is disposed in at least one of said plurality of base stations (Col 6 lines 66).
5. As per Claims 3 and 10, Chuah discloses the security device set forth in Claim 1 and 9 wherein said first controller is disposed in a mobile switching center of said wireless network (Col 7 line 30).
6. As per claims 4, and 12, Chuah teaches the security device set forth in claim 1 comprising a second controller (Registration Agent, Col 7 lines 12-15) capable of determining that said un-provisioned mobile station is un-provisioned (Col 8 line 66 to Col 9 line 20).
7. As per claims 5, 13, and 18, Chuah discloses the security device set forth in Claim 1, wherein said second controller determines that said un-provisioned mobile station is un-provisioned if said un-provisioned mobile station is unable to authenticate to said wireless network (Col 16 line 54 to Col 17 line 20).

8. As per claims 7, 15, and 20, Chuah discloses the security device set forth in claims 1,9, and 17 wherein the second controller determines that said un-provisioned mobile station is un-provisioned according to data receive from a home location register associated with said wireless network (Col 15 lines 5-6, and Col 16 lines 54-63).
9. As per claims 8 and 16, Chuah discloses the security device set forth in Claim 1 wherein said first controller comprises a data processor capable of executing an encryption program stored in a memory associated with said data processor (Col 10 lines 55-67, and Col 14 lines 3-16).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

10. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.
11. Claims 6, 14, and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chuah et al and in view of Henry (US 5,603,084).

12. As per Claims 6, 14, and 19, Chuah teaches the security device set forth in Claim 1, 9 and 17 and also the second controller and further suggests of different method of internet remote access, such as GSM/CDMA/TDMA network and more listed in Col 4 line 64 to Col 5 line 9. However, Chuah does not teach the step of determining that an un-provisioned mobile station that is unauthorized according to a predetermined telephone number. Nevertheless, Henry discloses a cellular system connected to PSTN through a mobile switching center (MSC) (Col 5 lines 3-21). The cellular system along with the MSC provides determination of a mobile access rights by using the Mobile Identification Number (MIN) equivalent to a 10 digits telephone number (Col 5 lines 33-49). Therefore, It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to incorporate the teaching of Henry into the second controller on the security device of Chuah to determine the mobile station is authorized/unauthorized based on the telephone number. The incorporation would add another layer of authentication to the wireless network to minimize unauthorized mobile device accessing the network (Col 4 lines 29-59 and Col 5 lines 45-64).

Conclusion

13. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
